

Nana Star Review & Giveaway

Nana Star

Nana Star is a beautifully written series that follows the adventures of a little girl named Nana Star. The first book in the Series called Nana Star follows her as she sets out to help a little Star find his way back home. She starts her day as a regular little girl, then suddenly has a great and magical adventure ahead of her. The second book in the series is called Nana Star and the Moonman and continues the story of the lost baby star. But this time, she is on her way to the heavens and the world becomes to dark as everyone has gone to bed. At first she feels alone and scared, but then a new friend named Moonman promises to watch over her, even when she can't see him. This second book is especially great for children who have felt lonely, or are afraid of being alone at night. The message is powerful yet easy enough for little readers to understand. The third book will be available this Spring and is called Nana Star and the Blue Wolf. I am so excited to read this third book in the series and see how their adventure continues!

Each of these books is uniquely illustrated with soft colors, and wonderful characters. The stories instill old fashioned values into our children that unfortunately get forgotten in today's toys & books. Nana Star is generous, caring, brave, and selfless. The books also come with a CD of the story and music so children can listen and follow along with the words in the book, or even listen to the story in the car.

Also available are the adorable plush characters straight from the beloved books. Now children will have a new way to connect with the characters they meet, and can follow along in a whole new interactive way. We received both books, and the Nana Star doll and the Moonman doll. I must say that the plush toys were a huge hit with my daughter. The little doll is so dear and sweet. She has bendable legs to mold to your child's imaginations. She will instantly become your daughter's best friend! The Moonman is soft and has such a caring, kind face. He lights up in a soft glow, and plays a little lullaby tune when squeezed. I think this would be a great thing to have for the little one's that may want t security toy at night. If they are afraid and alone, they can press the Moonman and have a little nightlight and lullaby. My daughter loves them both so much and has so much fun with them. She also loves to cozy up to her Moonman & sway to his soothing song!

Another great thing about this family owned company is that they donate a portion of their proceeds to their Nana Star Foundation. This is dedicated to helping make life easier for children attending under-resourced, inner-city schools and for terminally ill children. It is so important to purchase from companies that are making a difference in the world, and Nana Star is one of those companies. In addition to this foundation, they also donate their books & toys to schools, libraries, and hospitals throughout the country and around the world.

February is also their Laugh Friendly Month which promotes a positive attitude, and laughter! To help spread awareness for their foundation, they have started Button for a Buck! Now when you donate $1.00 to their Nana Star Foundation you will receive a 3 inch button that lets everyone around you (grumpy coworkers anyone?) know that YOU are laugh friendly! This is an easy way to donate to a wonderful cause! Click HERE to visit their laugh friendly site and to donate to their deserving foundation!
