Sisters Elizabeth Sills and Elena Patrice trademarked their partnership the “laugh-friendly company” to reflect their philosophy of business and life. They believe that the simple story of Nana Star will be a success in today’s society where it is hard for children to find appropriate role models. They also believe that parents will welcome a return to simpler, nostalgic times. Since founding ee publishing and productions, they’ve expanded the world of Nana Star to include a picture book series, character plushies, and an award-winning companion website.

Join a little girl's magical adventures as she promises to bring a lost baby star home where he belongs. It won't be easy—he lives high up in the heavens.
