

Nana Star Books and Toys

By Dipika Mirpuri, About.com

Everybody loves grandma's stories. This is the premise for the Nana Star series founded by Elizabeth Sills and Elena Patrice who wanted to share their grandmother's simple but poignant stories with the world. Old fashioned values of friendship and love are desperately needed in today's fast moving world where everyone seems to be in a hurry to get somewhere. These simple stories with values such as kindness, generosity and compassion not encourage but provide also for wholesome entertainment.

Readers can currently enjoy two hardback books including "Nana Star" which is a story about an ordinary girl who finds a lost star and promises to bring him home. Second in the series is "Nana Star and the Moonman" which has a comforting message about faith and friendship for kids who don't like the dark or who feel lonely.

Also available is the Nana Star gift set which includes a hardback book and a Nana Star plushie or a Moonman plushie. Nana Star plushies, Moonman and Bluewolf plushies are also available which will be comforting companions to their young buddies.

This Nana Star Plush doll is sure to encourage kids everywhere. Through the simple, sweet stories, this Nana Star plush doll is all set to charm your little ones.
