Review & Giveaway: Nana Star

August 7th, 2008 by Island Review

Girlie Girl has a new best friend and her name is Nana Star and we were lucky to have the opportunity to review 2 of her books:

Nana Star: "Join a little girl's magical adventures as she sets out on the journey to bring a lost baby star home where he belongs. It won't be easy - he lives high up in the heavens."

Nana Star and the Moonman: "Nana Star is ready to bring the lost baby star to the heavens, but the world has gone to bed and she feels alone and afraid until a new friend, the Moonman, promises that he's watching over her, even when she can't see him."

These colorful and easy-to-read books were a big hit with our family because not only could Girlie Girl read through them herself but also because we found the Nana Star book series to focus on character-building, compassion, and generosity. All very important traits I want my children to possess.

The books also come with a sing-along song CD that brought the characters to life. It made the whole Nana Star experience fun and educational and definitely something my daughters will treasure for a long time.

And as if that wasn't enough, we also received a Nana Star & Moonman plushie, one for each of the girls. They love playing out the stories with these soft and cuddly dolls.

Thank you to ee publishing & productions, llc for this great review opportunity!
